

MODULE 3 – Intellectual Property

Unit 1: What is Intellectual Property?

1. Which of the following would not be considered your intellectual property?
  - (a) An original idea you formulate.
  - (b) A document you write.
  - (c) A song you write.
  - (d) A book you own.
  - (e) An invention you create.

2. Intellectual Property
  - (a) Refers to creations of the mind
  - (b) Is a tangible property
  - (c) Can be bought or sold
  - (d) All of the above
  - (e) Only A and B

Unit 2: Copyright

- 1) Copyright refers to
  - (a) Rights granted to a creator of an original work
  - (b) Deals with inventive thoughts
  - (c) Is no longer enforceable for content posted on the Internet
  - (d) Protection for Intellectual Property
  - (e) All of the above
  - (f) a and d only

- 2) The concept of “Fair Dealings” in Canadian Copyright Law:
  - (a) Allows users to download one copy of anything, as long as they don't sell it
  - (b) Allows users to breach normal copyright requirements, as long as it is “fair”
  - (c) Allows owners of copyright to charge whatever they want for use of the material
  - (d) Allows the University to impose sanctions against use of all copyright material
  - (e) Allows users free access to material for the purpose of independent study
  - (f) Allows dealers the right to mark-up material they sell

- 3) Which of these statements are correct:
  - (a) Copyright exists from the moment work is created
  - (b) For Copyright to exist, it has to be registered
  - (c) Copyright never expires

- (d) Copyright typically expires 20 years after the death of the creator of the work
- (e) A and C
- (f) A and D
- (g) B and D

Unit 3: Patents

- 1) A Patent is
  - (a) A right granted to an inventor for sole use of their invention
  - (b) Only of value in the U.S.
  - (c) Non-transferable
  - (d) Valid forever
  - (e) All of the above
  - (f) a, c and d only

- 2) Which of these statements are correct:
  - (a) Patent exists from the moment work is created
  - (b) For a Patent to exist, it has to be registered
  - (c) Patent never expires
  - (d) Patent is typically granted for 20 years
  - (e) A and C
  - (f) A and D
  - (g) B and D

- 3) A Trade Secret, such as a soda formula:
  - (h) Is a form of a patent and has to be registered
  - (i) Is protected by federal and international laws
  - (j) Can be protected by registration as soon as possible
  - (k) Can only be protected by the owner and as long as it is not disclosed